Georgetown University, Washington, DC

B.S., Psychology, 1988

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

District of Columbia Center for AIDS Research (DC CFAR), The George Washington University, Washington, DC

Incoming Director, Social and Behavioral Sciences Core, Spring 2018, post-2017 sabbatical year

Applied Social Psychology Program, Department of Psychology, The George Washington University, Washington, DC

Professor of Psychology (with Tenure), Spring 2013 – Present (Sabbatical 2017)

Faculty Affiliate, Women's Studies Program, Spring 2016

Department of Community Health and Prevention, School of Public Health, Drexel University, Philadelphia, PA

Adjunct Professor, Spring 2013

Associate Professor (with Tenure), Fall 2006-Winter 2012

Behavioral Science Program, Department of Psychology, University of Rhode Island, Kingston, RI

Associate Professor (with Tenure), Spring 2004 – Spring 2006

Assistant Professor, Fall 1998 – Spring 2004

The Centers for Behavioral and Preventive Medicine, Brown University Medical School, Diversity Committee, Clinical Psychology Training Consortium, Providence, RI

Consultant, 2004-2006

Conducted two workshops designed to increase the level of multicultural competence of the Brown University Clinical Psychology post-doctorate training consortium and faculty.

Community Research and Services Team (CRST), University of Rhode Island, Providence, RI

Co-Principal Investigator, 2002-2005

Designed and conducted qualitative evaluation research for an American Legacy Foundation-funded grant for youth to direct and implement tobacco control initiatives in Rhode Island.

ProChange Behavior Systems Inc., Kingston, RI

Consultant, August 2003

Designed and conducted workshop on analyzing focus group data.

Center for AIDS Prevention Studies, Collaborative HIV Prevention Research in Minority Communities Program, University of California, San Francisco, San Francisco, CA

Visiting Professor, Summer 1999 - Summer 2001

Center for Women Policy Studies, Washington, DC

Senior Research Consultant, 1997 - 1998 (Part-Time)

In collaboration with the Women's Collective, a community-based organization for women living with HIV/AIDS (WLHA), conducted research on women's access to HIV/AIDS medications. Co-authored a policy report based on this research.

Research Consultant, 1997

Facilitated a focus group for WLHA regarding the use of thalidomide for treating wasting syndrome. Conducted interviews with WLHA to evaluate the impact of their participation in a prior advocacy-training workshop on their current HIV/AIDS advocacy activities. Synthesized the qualitative data collected into a report for TMG.

Research/Policy Consultant, 1991-1992

Conceptualized and wrote a policy paper on mandatory HIV testing of female sex workers and low-income pregnant women, and another on the ramifications for rape survivors of mandatory HIV testing of charged and convicted rapists.

AIDS Council of Greater Kansas City, Kansas City, MO

Research Consultant, 1995

Developed and wrote two policy reports analyzing major state HIV/AIDS legislative trends from 1991 to 1995. The reports were designed to assist the AIDS Council of Greater Kansas City design HIV/AIDS policies and legislation appropriate for people living with HIV/AIDS in Kansas City.

AIDS Policy Center (APC), Intergovernmental Health Policy Project (IHPP), The George Washington University (GWU), Washington, DC

Interim Director, 1994, 1995-1996 (Part-Time)

Managed and directed the activities of the APC. Wrote grant proposals and foundation year-end reports. Analyzed state HIV/AIDS legislation for state and local policymakers.

Research Associate, 1990-1994. Analyzed state HIV/AIDS legislation and provided technical assistance to state and local policymakers. Served as Editorial Director for the APC newsletter, Intergovernmental AIDS Reports. Wrote newsletter articles and policy reports on various HIV/AIDS policy topics.
Research Assistant, 1988-1989. Assisted senior researchers with state HIV/AIDS policy research.

GRANTS

ACTIVE

Bowleg (Principal Investigator, PI) 7 R01 MH100022-02	9/12/2013-6/30/2018 NIH/NIMH	$3,340,534
---	---------------------------------	-------------

Social-Structural Stressors, Resilience and Sexual Risk Behaviors Among Black Men

The major goal of this grant is to refine and test a conceptual model of neighborhood-level social-structural stressors, individual-level sociodemographic stressors, psychological risk factors, neighborhood-level and individual-level resilience, and Black men's sexual HIV risk and protective behaviors.

Bowleg (PI; Co-PI: Raj) 5 R01 MH096657 – 03	8/6/2013 – 5/31/2018 NIH/NIMH	$3,099,011

Evaluating an Intervention Affecting Black Men's Structural and Behavioral HIV Risk

The purpose of this study is to evaluate the efficacy of the MEN Count intervention, an HIV intervention and prevention program for heterosexual Black men. The MEN Count model integrates HIV risk reduction and gender-equity counseling with housing and employment case management via multiple one-on-one sessions delivered by a peer case manager over 60-90 day period.

Bowleg (Consultant; PIs: Gallo, Creswell & Deutsch) 1R25MH104660-01	9/1/2014-8/31/2018 NIH/NIMH	$216,014

Mixed Methods Research Training Program

This project is designed to provide a state-of-the-art methodology educational program to enhance the mixed methods skills of NIH investigators in response to RFA-OD-13-009 "Short Courses on Courses on Innovative Methodologies in the Behavioral and Social Sciences.

MENTORED AWARDS

Bowleg (Co-Mentor; PI: Mackenzie) 5 K01MH096608	7/01/2012-6/30/17 NIH/NIMH	$158,962
---	-------------------------------	-----------

Cultural and Relationship Context of HIV: Bisexually Active Black Men

This mentored award is designed to provide training and mentored research experience for a mixed methods study focused on behaviorally bisexual African American men and their female partners.

COMPLETED

Bowleg (PI) 9/1/2016-8/30/2017 $2,500
 XD@GW Seminar Series Grant GW Office of the Provost

Because Where You Live in DC Matters to Your Health: A Community-GW Collaborative Partnership to Reduce Health Disparities and Promote Health in Southeast DC Neighborhoods

The goal of this grant is to develop a series of four neighborhood and health XD@GW seminars to stimulate innovative and critical dialogue about how GW researchers interested in neighborhood and health research, programs, interventions and policy can use their expertise to meaningfully and respectfully engage with Southeast DC communities to reduce health disparities and improve health.

Bowleg (Mentor; PI: Shawnika Hull)
 HRP-800 DC-CFAR Pilot Award $50,000

Understanding Determinants of Intentions to Utilize Prep among Black Women in DC

Informed by the Integrative Model of Behavioral Prediction, the goal of this mixed methods study is to identify relevant attitudinal, normative and efficacy beliefs and environmental barriers related to the uptake of Pre-Exposure Prophylaxis (PrEP) to prevent HIV in Black women in Washington DC.

Bowleg (Consultant; PI: Leaf) 9/1/2015-5/31/2016 $174,392
 1R43HD081992-01A1 NIH/NICHD

HIV Education for African American Men

This project aims to develop a computer-based HIV prevention program for African American men who have sex with women (MSW) that includes education and training about female and male condoms. This project will allow clinics to provide an empirically validated HIV prevention intervention to their clients without creating additional demands on their already overburdened staff. The skills contained in this program will help African American MSW reduce unprotected sex acts, and ultimately prevent the spread of HIV, by adding an additional barrier method—the female condom—to their arsenal of protection strategies.

Bowleg (PI)
 GWU University Facilitating Fund 7/1/2014-7/1/2015 $15,000

Developing Brothers on the J-O-B: A Multilevel HIV Prevention Intervention for Unemployed Black Heterosexual men in DC at Increased HIV Risk

The goal of this study was to develop Brothers on the J-O-B, a multilevel structural employment and individual-level HIV prevention intervention for unemployed Black heterosexual men in Washington, DC at elevated risk for HIV.

Bowleg (Research Collaborator; PI: Hankivsky) 1/3/2014-4/30/2015
 Canadian Institutes of Health Research (CIHR) Planning Grant

Advancing Mental Health and HIV Research, Policy, and Programming through Intersectionality

The project aims to create an interdisciplinary team to: (1) explore how population-based approaches to mental health and HIV services and supports can be advanced through an intersectionality framework; and (2) set priorities for a program or research and develop a strategic plan for an application to a CIHR Partnership for Health System Improvement competition.

The Effect of Intersecting Stigmas on PrEP Outcomes for Young Black MSM (YBMSM)

1K01MH112412-01 NIH/NIMH (Submitted December 2016)

The proposed K01 study will use mixed-methods to improve our understanding of the effects of intersecting stigmas on pre-exposure prophylaxis (PrEP) knowledge and acceptability among young Black MSM, ages 16-25. Findings from this study will inform the development of a culturally-tailored, multi-level intervention to increase PrEP use among YBMSM by addressing stigma.

Black Emerging Adult MSM: Intersectionality, Resilience, Preventing Substance Use and Promoting Health

1 R01 DA041517-01

NIH/NIDA

The goal of this proposal is to use an intersectionality-informed approach to refine and test a conceptual model of social-structural and psychosocial stressors, and the modifying effect of resilience on three outcomes: substance use (e.g., alcohol, marijuana, nicotine), mental health (e.g., depression), and physical and biological health indicators (e.g., blood pressure, hs-CRP) among Black emerging men who have sex with men in the Washington DC Metropolitan Statistical Area.

Bowleg (Co-I; PI: Brawner)

Predictors of Healthcare Utilization and Cardiovascular Disease Risk among Black Men

1R01NR016667-01

NIH/NINR

The goal of this proposed mixed methods study is to understand and inform interventions designed to understand the role of cultural, racial, gender and geographic predictors of healthcare utilization and cardiovascular disease risk among Black men.
